Houston Center for Photography
Executive Director: OPEN
Job Description—Major Duties

Reports to: Board of Directors
Full-time position

Houston Center for Photography (HCP) seeks a leader to serve as Executive Director. HCP’s mission is to increase society’s understanding and appreciation of photography and its evolving role in contemporary culture. HCP strives to encourage artists, build audiences, stimulate dialogue, and promote inquiry about photography and related media through education programs, exhibitions, publications, fellowship programs, and community collaborations.

The successful candidate will be responsible for the organization’s professional leadership, management, and curatorial vision. They should have a background in arts administration, an understanding of the medium of photography (and related practices), and experience with fundraising, financial management, strategic planning, supervision of staff, and the ability to work well with a diverse population of individuals. Reporting to the Board of Directors, they will lead the staff, collaborate with community stakeholders, and inspire others to participate in the mission of the organization.

This position entails a diverse set of responsibilities, the primary of which are outlined below.

- Provide leadership and vision on the strategic direction for HCP in collaboration with Board of Directors and staff.
- Serve as lead fiduciary for the organization.
- Serve as the lead fundraiser for HCP, a responsibility that also entails establishing fundraising goals, working closely with the staff to maintain and increase contributions by existing and new donors, and submitting grant requests to foundations, government agencies, and individuals to achieve the established goals.
- Serve as the primary interface with the Board of Directors.
- Manage full-time and part-time staff as well as consultants and contractors; mentor staff and encourage their professional development.
- Direct personnel policies and procedures for compensation/benefits and all staff activities.
- Serve as spokesperson for HCP with the media and the public and ensure that the HCP message is clear, consistent, and positive and that there is a favorable public perception of HCP.
- Develop and provide curatorial vision for the exhibitions at HCP.
- Engage local, national, and international artists to create exhibitions and exhibition-related programming.

Key Skills and Requirements
- 3 – 5 years in senior management of arts non-profit and an advanced degree is preferred though not required
• 3 – 5 years of fundraising experience
• Strong financial and management skills
• Strong interpersonal skills
• Excellent written and verbal communication skills
• Creative problem solver and consensus builder with the ability to inspire diverse constituencies including volunteers, staff, board, and the general public
• An excitement and passion for photography, education, fine art, and community engagement

Interested candidates should email (in a single .pdf document) a cover letter; resume; a writing sample (no more than 2 pages typed); and the contact information of 3 references to: search@hcponline.org. No phone calls please.
