

COLLABORATIONS

Collaborations XVI Student, Sarah Bauman (Incarnate Word Academy)

Collaborations is a semester-long photography program, which brings together high school students from various areas of Houston to work together in creating a group exhibition at Houston Center for Photography.

Why participate in Collaborations?

- Build confidence while presenting your work during regular critiques
- Meet professionals working within photography-related careers
- Go on field trips to various art organizations
- Form relationships with other students interested in photography
- Develop skills to further your career in photography
- Exhibit your work at the leading photography gallery in the region

Schedule

5 – 7pm, Tuesdays, January 14 – May 5, 2020
(excluding February 11th and March 17th)
All meetings, except for field trips, take place at HCP.

Fee

$275/student
*A limited number of scholarships are available.
Program limited to 20 participants.*

Application

The application is available online on the HCP website at www.hcponline.org/classes/collaborations.

Deadline: Sunday, November 3, 2019 by midnight

Questions? Contact Natalie Rodgers, Community Education Manager